TWENTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

The 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time reminds us that faith is lived with others. God asks people to care for each other. The readings show that love and responsibility go together. Ezekiel speaks about warning others when they go the wrong way. Paul teaches that love guides all choices. Love helps people act with care and respect for one another.

The Gospel shows how to deal with conflict in a loving way. Jesus teaches people to speak first in private and seek peace. The goal is to heal, not to hurt. When people gather in Jesus' name, He is with them. This Sunday teaches that faith grows in community, through love, honesty, and unity.

- Responsibility for Others: Ezekiel speaks about being a watchman. This means people have a duty to warn others when they are doing wrong.
- Loving Others Fulfills the Law: Paul teaches that love sums up all the commandments. If people love their neighbors, they will not harm

TWENTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

- Correcting with Kindness: Jesus explains how to correct someone who sins. The goal is to bring them back, not to shame them.
- Church as a Community: Jesus tells his followers to involve the church when needed. The church helps guide people toward what is right.
- Power of Agreement: Jesus says that when people agree in faith, their prayers matter. God listens when people pray together.
- God's Presence in Unity: Jesus promises to be present when people gather in his name. This shows the importance of faith and community.

The 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time teaches about love, responsibility, and the role of the church. It reminds people to help each other grow in faith and goodness.

LABOR DAY

What a joy it is for all to gather together to worship on this special weekend when we recognize and appreciate work!" "Happy Labor Day"

Lord God,

You are the creator of all things, and you have made us in your own image.

You invite us to share in your creative work by using our talents to serve others.

On this Labor Day, we thank you for the gift of work. We thank you for the strength to labor, the skills to create, and the opportunities to provide for our families.

We ask your blessing upon all workers:

Bless those who toil in the fields, factories, and offices.

Bless those who care for the sick, teach the young, and protect our communities.

Bless those who work unseen in their homes to nurture their families.

Grant rest to those who are weary, and comfort those who are burdened.

We pray especially for those who cannot find work, those who are underemployed, and those whose labor is unfair or unsafe. Give them hope, and touch the hearts of leaders to create opportunities for all.

Help us to see our daily work as a way to praise you and love our neighbors.

When our work on earth is done, welcome us into your eternal rest.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
