TWENTY FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

Forgiveness Without Limits

The 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time reminds us that forgiveness is at the center of our faith. The readings show how anger and resentment can harm us, but mercy brings healing. God's love is full of patience, and he asks us to treat others with the same care.

Sirach teaches that clinging to wrath only leads to trouble. We are told to remember our short lives and let go of grudges. Paul reminds the Romans that whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. This means our choices should show mercy and unity, not judgment.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells a story about a servant who was forgiven but would not forgive. This parable shows that mercy must flow both ways. The 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time is a call to forgive as we have been forgiven. It is about living in God's mercy every day.

Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?

Matthew 18:20

TWENTY FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

The Book of Sirach: Let Go of Wrath

Sirach often gives practical wisdom for daily life, calling people to live justly before God. In this passage for the 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time anger and resentment are rejected. Instead, we are reminded of our human limits and the need to follow God's law. The book often urges humility and right living, and forgiveness is part of that path.

This teaching also ties into Sirach's theme of preparing for judgment. Remembering death encourages people to live in a way that honors God and others. Forgiveness is shown as an act of wisdom and obedience. Just as Sirach calls us to balance fear of the Lord with mercy toward others, this reading reminds us that true justice involves setting aside hatred.

2026 ANNUAL CATHOLIC
Appeal

What is the ACA and what does it support?

The Annual Catholic Appeal (Campaña Anual de Cooperación Diocesana) is your annual opportunity to renew your commitment to the different ministries here in the Diocese of Yakima. It is your recognition that there are priests, deacons, teachers and catechists to train, parishes to visit and youth to confirm and nurture in their faith.

How much should I give?

It does not matter how little or how much you give! What matters is that you give a sufficient amount so that you are challenged to change your spending habits. Why? Because ultimately the Annual Catholic Appeal is not about money.

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

Whether it's supporting our ministries, maintaining our facilities, or reaching out to those in need, your gifts extend Christ's love to all.
