TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

Trusting God in Every Power

The 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A teaches that God's power reaches everywhere. He can work through anyone, even people who do not know Him. In the first reading, God uses Cyrus, a foreign king, to help Israel. This shows that God's plans move through all nations and rulers. Nothing is beyond His reach.

The psalm reminds us that all the earth should praise the LORD. His justice and strength rule over every land. We are called to honor Him, not just with words, but with how we live each day. The Lord is the true ruler of all creation.

In the Gospel, Jesus faces a test about loyalty. His answer is simple but wise: give Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give God what belongs to God. On the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time we are reminded that faith calls for balance. We live in this world, but our hearts belong to God alone.

Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.

Matthew 22:21

The readings show how God works through people, even those who do not know Him, and how faith should shape our actions.

TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

- God's Control Over History: God used Cyrus, a foreign king, to help Israel. This shows that God guides events and can use anyone to fulfill His plan.
- Faith in Action: Paul praises the Thessalonians for their faith, love, and hope. True faith leads to action and is seen in the way people live.
- God and Government: Jesus tells the Pharisees to give Caesar what belongs to him and give God what belongs to God. This teaches that people have duties to both their country and to God.
- Sincerity in Worship: The Pharisees questioned Jesus with bad intentions. Worship and faith should come from a sincere heart, not for show or to trap others.

ADORATION EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

First Friday- Adoration Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will be Friday November 6th at St. John the Baptist-Cle Elum following the 8am Mass.

A person does not have to be Catholic, does not have to know anything about prayer, and does not have to make any personal commitment to come before Jesus in the Eucharist.

The power of a few minutes of silence in the presence of Jesus is more powerful than anything else.

A person must be present at all times during adoration, you may sign up in the back of the churches.

All are welcome to come!

Logic to the strategic goals of the Diocese of Yakima: Build the Young Church in Christ; Build the Mission Church in Christ; Build up the One Body of Christ; Build Safe Environments for all in the Body of Christ.

Without priests there is no Mass. Without youth ministry there will be no seminarians to become priests. Without youth ministry we won't have vocational discernment for either Holy Orders or for Marriage. Without robust programs of safe environment, we cannot guarantee the quality of our ministry. We need robust support of safe environment training in the prevention of sexual abuse of minors
